

PRESTIGE EDUCATION FOUNDATION

A GLOBALLY INNOVATIVE & FUTURISTIC EDUCATION HUB

Mr Dipin Jain, Dr Nemnath Jain, Dr Davish Jain, Dr Anil Bajpai, Mrs Monica Jain and Dr Yogeshwari Phatak.

The saga of a 42-year-old legacy began when Dr Nemnath Jain, a first-generation technocrat, industrialist and social reformer played a pioneering role in the interest of the farmers of M.P., through soybean cultivation, earning him the sobriquet of the 'Soya Man of the Millennium'.

He is the founder of the conglomerate, the Prestige Group of Industries, having presence across a range of diverse sectors including agriculture, food processing, manufacturing, professional and technical education. His cherished dream to empower the youth through affordable and quality education took shape in 1994 under the Prestige Education Society now known as Prestige Education Foundation, Indore.

Today, Prestige Group sponsors world-class Management & Technical institutes and private schools across central India, imparting education to about 15,000 students from Kindergarten to Ph.D. under the umbrella of The Prestige Education Foundation. Honoring its commitment towards the empowerment of society with the establishment of a management institute to nurture professional leaders and managers for the industry. "We have come to believe that it is one of the best ways of giving back to the society and nation," says Dr Davish Jain, who heads Prestige Group of Industries and is carrying forward the proud legacy of his father Dr Nemnath Jain, in nurturing health and education.

Silver Jubilee Celebration of PIMR

The sentiments of the 88-year-old legend were expressed on the occasion of the three-day silver jubilee celebrations of central India's leading B school, the prestigious Prestige Institute of Management and Research (PIMR). He said, "The move into the education domain was my way of a religious statement. I have always believed in investing in Temples... temples of knowledge and the Prestige Institute took birth.
